7. Commissioners believe their joint interviews with the applicants provide valuable insight and information about the applicants' abilities and character; however, applicants may contact commissioners before the interviews to request individual interviews by telephone or in person. Applicants are strongly encouraged to arrange for this interview no later than one week before the commission's joint interviews. Commissioners may suggest that an in-person meeting is unnecessary if there has already been such an in-person meeting during a prior application process.

Sixteenth Circuit Judicial Commission Information About Our Decision Process

As members of the Sixteenth Circuit Judicial Commission, we have been asked certain questions with great frequency. Therefore, we believe that most judicial applicants may be interested in additional clarification of the process.

- Each commissioner is diligent to become familiar with the capabilities of all applicants by reviewing each application, reading the reference letters, receiving telephone recommendations, meeting with individual applicants and participating in the group interviews.
- We are not, nor have we ever been, contacted by the Governor or anyone on his behalf regarding either our work in this process or any individual involved in this process. All current commissioners have confirmed this position.
- Without exception, no commissioner discusses applicants with any other commissioner until all interviews are completed.
- Missouri Supreme Court Rule 10.29 requires that “voting on persons under consideration shall be by secret ballot.” While applicants may be discussed during the commissioners’ deliberation, all actual voting is by secret ballot. Furthermore, we discuss neither our votes nor our deliberations after the fact.

We welcome your questions about the process. That the public, the judiciary, and the lawyers understand how we do our work is important. We all appreciate the chance to serve as commissioners. We thank you for your interest in the Jackson County judiciary.

The Commission:

Joseph M. Ellis
Gayle Holliday
John Kurtz
Judy Johnson Myers
Cindy Reams Martin
